

World Book Day

Thursday 1st March

World Book Day takes place on Thursday 1st March, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child to make the most of this special occasion.

World Book Day celebrates the joy and value of books and reading, especially for children. To help get them started on their reading journey, every child receives a £1 World Book Day Book Token that can either be exchanged for one of TEN special £1 World Book Day books or used to get £1 off any book costing £2.99 or more. Your child's token will be sent home on World Book Day and can be redeemed at most UK bookshops. Please help your child to use it on or around World Book Day by visiting your local bookshop (if you need help finding one, visit booksellers.org.uk/bookshopsearch).

The tokens can also be used at our Book Fair which takes place after school in the school hall 14th-20th March.

At Millfield Primary, here are some examples of how we will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 1st March by:

- Inviting pupils and staff to come to school in their pyjamas with a copy of their favourite bedtime 'read' to share.
- Holding a special World Book Day assembly to encourage reading for pleasure.
- Teachers sharing their favourite picture books.
- Meeting with Reading Buddies to share our favourite bedtime reads.

You can join us in building your child's enthusiasm for books well beyond World Book Day by reading together regularly and joining your local library if you are not yet members. For more information about World Book Day and ideas on sharing books at home, visit worldbookday.com.

Children are never too young to start their journey with books, and the benefits of reading are enormous—so we hope, like us, you will use World Book Day to celebrate it with your child.

Happy reading!
